Released in 2012, Clip Studio Paint is a graphics software for illustrations, color, and monochrome comics, and animation, packed with tools including realistic pen and brush tools for a variety of styles. Artists of all levels use Clip Studio Paint, from digital art beginners to professional / comic artists, illustrators, animators, and designers, as well as universities and vocational schools.

In 2019, we released an iPhone version of our software worldwide in addition to the desktop and iPad versions. The software is available in seven languages (Japanese, English, Traditional Chinese, Korean, French, Spanish, and German), and more than 60% of our users are outside Japan. Clip Studio Paint has become a global standard for creators all over the world.

Celsys will continue supporting creators in many aspects of digital art.
