Clip Studio Paint is a graphics software for illustration, color/monochrome comics, and animation. It is packed with tools and features that support entire production workflows, including realistic pen and brush tools to create artwork in various styles. Artists of all levels use Clip Studio Paint, from digital art beginners to professional comic artists, illustrators, animators, and designers. It is also used in universities and vocational schools.

The software is available in seven languages (Japanese, English, Traditional Chinese, Korean, French, Spanish, and German), and more than 60% of our users are outside Japan. Clip Studio Paint has become a global standard for creators all over the world.

In addition to the Windows, macOS, iPad, iPhone, and Galaxy versions, in December 2020, Android and Chromebook versions of Clip Studio Paint were released worldwide, allowing users to create full-scale graphic content on any major device. They can also share works with other devices via the cloud, allowing them to be creative however and whenever they want in these new normal times.

Celsys will continue supporting creators in many aspects of digital art.
